

PERSONAL POINTS.

NEWS AND Gossip ABOUT PEOPLE AND THINGS IN RICHMOND.

Ladies Visiting Friends Here—What is to Come After Last—News About Folks You Know, &c.

Easter Sunday is April 25th.

Hon. George D. Wise is in the city.

Miss Hattie Gray is visiting friends in Norfolk.

Bishop A. M. Randolph has returned to the city.

Mr. J. L. Moon, of Scottsville, Va., is in the city.

A. H. Kelley, of West Point, was in the city last week.

Miss Goldborough, of Baltimore, is visiting friends here.

The lawn-tennis season has commenced in Richmond.

Mr. Robert Burroughs, of Venable street, is still very ill.

Mr. W. B. Henley, of Dover Mills, was in the city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hay T. Thornton, of Baltimore, are in the city.

Miss Dalby, teacher in one of the public schools, has resigned.

Miss Lillie Gunn, of Church Hill, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. L. H. Blair, who was in Danville last week, has returned.

Miss Katie Schofield, of Danville, will be in the city this week.

Mr. J. W. Clayton, of Chub Lake, N. C., was in the city last week.

Miss Lizzie E. Pumphrey, of North Carolina, is in the city visiting friends.

Miss Bessie Williams, of Martinsville, Va., is the guest of Mrs. Stephen Putney.

Miss Kate Crane, of Elizabeth, N. J., is the guest of Governor Fitz Lee and lady.

Miss Sallie Thorton, of Person county, N. C., is at the Exchange Hotel.

Mr. J. A. Long, a prominent merchant of Person county, N. C., is in the city.

The City Collector will post his list of delinquent real estate to-morrow morning.

Miss Lizzie Putney has returned home after making quite a pleasant visit in Danville.

Miss Symington, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Powers, Eleventh and Gay streets.

Miss Bettie Stevens, of Petersburg, is the guest of Mrs. Heath, 309 west Grace street.

General W. B. Taliaferro, of Gloucester county, was in the city last week looking well.

Mr. C. R. Burt, of Hartford, Conn., a prominent insurance man, was in the city last week.

The Friday German Club expect to have another german on Tuesday the 26th of April.

Miss Carrie Pace returned from Danville last Tuesday, where she has been visiting friends.

Yesterday was the twenty-first anniversary of the evacuation and burning of Richmond.

Miss Lena Bauer, who has been ill for several weeks, has sufficiently recovered to be out.

Miss Susie West, of Louisa county, Virginia, who has been visiting the city, has returned home.

Miss Ella Clark, of Ashland, who has been visiting Mrs. J. J. Harvey, has returned home.

Mr. Ned Taylor, who has been sick for three weeks past, is now out and attending to business.

Miss Trice, from Hopkinsville, Ky., who has been visiting Captain John A. Coke, has left the city.

Miss May Smith, of Clarke county, is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Newton, Fourth and Main streets.

Mr. A. R. Foushee, of Roxboro', N. C., a prominent merchant of that town, was in the city last week.

Mr. Conway Myers will return to the city this week from Norfolk, where he has been for several weeks.

Mrs. Lizzie Daniel, of 720 east Franklin street, left the city last week to visit her sister in Florida.

Messrs. Charles D. Anderson, Powhatan Dupuy, and several friends left the city Friday for a fox-hunt.

Mrs. J. E. Mosley, of Amelia county, is the guest of Mrs. R. R. Macfarland, 1066 east Marshall street.

Miss Lizzie Putney, who has been visiting friends in Danville for several weeks, has returned to the city.

Miss Maybell Floyd, of Charles City county, who is visiting friends in the city, will remain until after Lent.

Mrs. James C. Lamb, of this city, who has been visiting friends in the Northern Neck, has returned home.

Mr. H. L. Pelouse is having built two handsome two-story brick dwellings on Clay near Fifth street.

Miss Ola Fowles, of Nottoway Courthouse, will visit Miss Winston, of 512 west Grace street, this week.

Miss Reta Ruffin, of Old Church, Hanover county, is the guest of Miss Lila Meade, of 606 north Sixth street.

The distinguished Rev. John Hall, of New York, is expected to change pulpits with Dr. Hoge one Sunday this month.

Mrs. and Mrs. Heston, who have been spending the winter in this city at the Linden, returned Friday to Washington city.

Three principals and a good many of the teachers of the public schools of the city are detained from their duties by cholera.

Miss Lena Ferrell, of Danville, is on a visit to this city, and is the guest of Mrs. Carrie Pace, west Franklin street.

Mrs. James B. McKenney, who has been visiting her parents here, will return to her home in Lancaster county, Thursday.

Miss Alice Morrow, of Mecklenburg county, is the guest of Mrs. George S. Sager, corner of Sixth and Main streets.

Mrs. P. Daniel and Miss Lilly Daniel, of Charlotte county, are the guests of Mrs. Ferguson, Third and Franklin streets.

The City Engineer had last week the line of First between Grace and Marshall streets surveyed, so as to ascertain the cost of widening.

Mrs. John Minter will leave the city on Thursday to visit her two daughters in Lancaster county. Mrs. Charles Minter will accompany her.

Rev. W. J. Gravatt, assistant rector of St. Paul's church, who has been visiting his relatives in Essex county, returned Thursday to this city.

Captain W. Gordon McCabe, of the University School, at Petersburg, spent an evening last week with Governor Lee.

Mr. W. A. Price has returned to the city.

Mr. A. Osterloh will leave to-day for New York.

Miss Eva Lowry has returned from her visit to Baltimore.

Miss Ella Hudson is visiting Mrs. Crockford, of Danville, Va.

Mr. Lewis Booker left yesterday on a business trip to New York.

Miss Ella Doewell, of Hanover county, was in the city last week.

Mr. N. E. Flournoy, of Smithfield, Va., was in the city last week.

an evening last week with Governor Lee.

Mr. W. A. Price has returned to the city.

Mr. A. Osterloh will leave to-day for New York.

Miss Eva Lowry has returned from her visit to Baltimore.

Miss Ella Hudson is visiting Mrs. Crockford, of Danville, Va.

Mr. Lewis Booker left yesterday on a business trip to New York.

Miss Ella Doewell, of Hanover county, was in the city last week.

Mr. N. E. Flournoy, of Smithfield, Va., was in the city last week.

Mrs. General Terry and Miss Terry will leave Monday for Liberty, Va.

Mr. W. H. Sadler is spending a week at his father's, in Fluvanna county.

Mrs. Louis P. Ecker left for New York to visit her mother last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heller returned to the city last week from their bridal tour.

Mr. Julian Ruffin, of Old Church, Hanover county, was in the city last week.

Mr. John W. White, of Bowling Green, Caroline county, was in the city last week.

Mr. Garick, of Scranton, Pa., left the city Wednesday after a week's visit to his friends.

One of the literary societies at Richmond College discussed prohibition last Friday night.

Miss Alice Reid, of Staunton, who has been visiting Miss Hattie Gray, left for New Kent Friday.

Mrs. J. M. Bland, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Boyd, on Grace street.

Miss Belle Jacob left the city last Friday to visit Mrs. J. A. Crockford, of Danville, Va.

Miss Etta Gee, of Lunenburg county, is visiting Mrs. W. W. Webb, No. 920 west Main street.

Rev. W. B. Williams, a prominent and useful Baptist preacher of Halifax county, N. C., is dead.

Miss Cassie Allison, of Canada, is visiting Colonel William A. James, No. 300 west Grace street.

Miss Nellie McIndoo returned home last Monday after a delightful visit to friends in Norfolk, Va.

Miss Rosa Goodwin, of Louisa County, Virginia, who has been stopping in the city, has gone home.

Miss Mary Gaines, of Hanover county, is visiting Miss Julia Jackson, No. 1222 east Broad street.

Miss Prince Ella Brockwell, who has been visiting friends in Charles City county, has returned to the city.

The York River railroad delivered passengers from the gas-house on Williamsburg avenue, during the flood.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Patterson, of Covington, Ky., who were in the city visiting friends, are now at Old Point.

Mrs. W. H. Hendley, who has been to Baltimore attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. N. B. Cook, has returned.

Miss Mamie H. Phillips, of Fredericksburg, passed through this city from a long visit both to Norfolk and Petersburg.

The Lee models on exhibition in the Senate chamber continue to attract large crowds to the Capitol daily from 12 to 6 o'clock.

Miss Lettie Stansbury, of Fredericksburg, who has been spending the winter with Mrs. A. Osterloh, will return home this week.

The Richmond Light Infantry Blues are having new uniforms made and expect to get them by the 10th of May, their anniversary.

Miss Helen Spikwith, who has been spending the winter in this city, returned to her home in Mecklenburg county, last week.

Mr. W. E. Tooke, formerly a teacher of shorthand in this city, is now editor and proprietor of the Democratic-Republican, of Hamilton, N. Y.

At a meeting of the Committee on the Fire Department Wednesday they had under consideration the purchase of a new engine for the department.

Mr. C. H. Knox, of Michigan, is in the city, and speaks of purchasing a farm on lower James river, and will make Virginia his future home.

Miss J. D. B. Thompson, who with her cousin from Boston, Miss Ayres, has been on a visit to friends in Petersburg, returned to the city Friday.

Mrs. Charles T. Barry and daughter, of Norfolk, are visiting our city—the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. C. W. Burr, west Marshall street.

Mr. Moses, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, is making a fine record for sensible management and clear comprehension of the duties of his position.

The sensation of the week in legal circles throughout the State was the announcement of the Supreme Court of Appeals with reference to the Ryan case.

The subject of Bishop Keane's sermon at the Cathedral to-night will be "The Prodigal Son." The Bishop's Lenten discourses are largely attended.

Miss Mary Watkins, of Prince Edward county, who has been visiting Miss Belle Jacob, No. 717 west Main street, left for her home last Thursday.

Miss Nellie Gregory, of Alexandria, who has been spending several weeks in this city with her friend, Miss Alma Hungerford, will return home to-morrow.

Mrs. Captain Frank Landon and sisters (Misses Cora and Rosa Merchant) of Matthews county, are visiting Mrs. D. G. Baker, No. 2806 east Franklin street.

The Pitt-Sing German Club will give several entertainments during Easter week. Some of the most beautiful girls in the city are members of the club.

Mr. W. B. McGilvray, principal of the Leigh-Street School, who has been ill for some time, was out last week and will be able to attend to his duties in a few days.

Senator Wingfield, of Albemarle, and other members of the legislative committee, are busily engaged in examining the offices in the basement of the Capitol.

Miss Julia A. Whiting, a most worthy public-school teacher, who has been ill for several weeks, is out and will in a day or two be able to attend to her school duties.

The S. W. Society of Grace church will give an entertainment soon after Easter, the proceeds of which will be used to purchase a new baptismal font for the church.

Rev. J. William Jones, D. D., was too unwell yesterday to meet his appointment to-day in Louisa county, and sent Rev. John V. Dickinson, of Richmond College, to take his place.

The Fire Department had an offer of $300 last week for one of the horses that was purchased recently in Harpersburg by Councilman J. J. King, and which cost the city government $150.

Mr. B. E. Gray left yesterday for Norfolk.

Mr. George L. Street has gone to Philadelphia.

Mr. Branch Cunningham left yesterday for Old Point.

Mr. C. E. Wortham left the city yesterday for Old Point.

Miss Carrie Gamble, of St. Louis, is staying at the Linden.

Mr. Cecil W. Ball is extremely ill at his residence, on Eighth street.

Dr. W. M. Wade, of Scottsville, Va., was in the city last week.

The Richmond-College campus is being graded in front of the building.

Mr. Mason Dillard arrived in the city Friday night after several months' absence.

Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, passed through the city yesterday on his way home.

There will be no service at Old Market Hall nor at Monumental church or chapel to-night.

Miss Estelle Courtney returned home last week after an extended visit to her sister in Georgia.

Mr. W. L. Reid, passenger agent of the Fall-River Line at New York, was in the city Friday.

Miss Minnie Gordon, of Powhatan county, is the guest of Miss Mary Thaw, north Eighth street.

Miss Alice Reid, of Staunton, who has been visiting Miss Hattie Gray, left for New Kent Friday.

Mr. W. W. Scott, formerly of Richmond, now residing in Ohio, is doing well in his new home.

Mr. George Kennon left last week for Denver, Col. He contemplates making that place his future home.

The Mu Sigma Rho literary society of Richmond College will have their public debate on Friday night, April 10th.

The old pine-tree in the Richmond College campus, said to be the only one within the corporate limits, is gradually dying.

Mrs. J. M. Page, of Charlottesville, was in the city last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. James V. Ramos, 601 east Main street.

Miss Lillie Monteiro, of Williamsburg, will be in the city this week, the guest of Miss Evelyn Watkins, No. 310 west Grace street.

Miss Mattie A. Wayne, of Kentucky, one of Covington's loveliest women, is at Old Point, leaving for Europe about the 1st of May.

Rev. Preston Nash, assistant rector of St. James church, will organize a Sunday school at the almshouse this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Patterson, of Covington, Ky., who were in the city visiting friends, are now at Old Point.

Mrs. W. H. Hendley, who has been to Baltimore attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. N. B. Cook, has returned.

Miss Mamie H. Phillips, of Fredericksburg, passed through this city from a long visit both to Norfolk and Petersburg.

The Lee models on exhibition in the Senate chamber continue to attract large crowds to the Capitol daily from 12 to 6 o'clock.

Miss Lettie Stansbury, of Fredericksburg, who has been spending the winter with Mrs. A. Osterloh, will return home this week.

The Richmond Light Infantry Blues are having new uniforms made and expect to get them by the 10th of May, their anniversary.

Miss Helen Spikwith, who has been spending the winter in this city, returned to her home in Mecklenburg county, last week.

Mr. W. E. Tooke, formerly a teacher of shorthand in this city, is now editor and proprietor of the Democratic-Republican, of Hamilton, N. Y.

At a meeting of the Committee on the Fire Department Wednesday they had under consideration the purchase of a new engine for the department.

Mr. C. H. Knox, of Michigan, is in the city, and speaks of purchasing a farm on lower James river, and will make Virginia his future home.

Miss J. D. B. Thompson, who with her cousin from Boston, Miss Ayres, has been on a visit to friends in Petersburg, returned to the city Friday.

Mrs. Charles T. Barry and daughter, of Norfolk, are visiting our city—the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. C. W. Burr, west Marshall street.

Mr. Moses, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, is making a fine record for sensible management and clear comprehension of the duties of his position.

The sensation of the week in legal circles throughout the State was the announcement of the Supreme Court of Appeals with reference to the Ryan case.

The subject of Bishop Keane's sermon at the Cathedral to-night will be "The Prodigal Son." The Bishop's Lenten discourses are largely attended.

Miss Mary Watkins, of Prince Edward county, who has been visiting Miss Belle Jacob, No. 717 west Main street, left for her home last Thursday.

Miss Nellie Gregory, of Alexandria, who has been spending several weeks in this city with her friend, Miss Alma Hungerford, will return home to-morrow.

Mrs. Captain Frank Landon and sisters (Misses Cora and Rosa Merchant) of Matthews county, are visiting Mrs. D. G. Baker, No. 2806 east Franklin street.

The Pitt-Sing German Club will give several entertainments during Easter week. Some of the most beautiful girls in the city are members of the club.

Mr. W. B. McGilvray, principal of the Leigh-Street School, who has been ill for some time, was out last week and will be able to attend to his duties in a few days.

Senator Wingfield, of Albemarle, and other members of the legislative committee, are busily engaged in examining the offices in the basement of the Capitol.

Miss Julia A. Whiting, a most worthy public-school teacher, who has been ill for several weeks, is out and will in a day or two be able to attend to her school duties.

The S. W. Society of Grace church will give an entertainment soon after Easter, the proceeds of which will be used to purchase a new baptismal font for the church.

Rev. J. William Jones, D. D., was too unwell yesterday to meet his appointment to-day in Louisa county, and sent Rev. John V. Dickinson, of Richmond College, to take his place.

The Fire Department had an offer of $300 last week for one of the horses that was purchased recently in Harpersburg by Councilman J. J. King, and which cost the city government $150.

Mr. B. E. Gray left yesterday for Norfolk.

Mr. George L. Street has gone to Philadelphia.

Mr. Branch Cunningham left yesterday for Old Point.

Mr. C. E. Wortham left the city yesterday for Old Point.

Miss Carrie Gamble, of St. Louis, is staying at the Linden.

Mr. Cecil W. Ball is extremely ill at his residence, on Eighth street.

Dr. W. M. Wade, of Scottsville, Va., was in the city last week.

The Richmond-College campus is being graded in front of the building.

Mr. Mason Dillard arrived in the city Friday night after several months' absence.

Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, passed through the city yesterday on his way home.

There will be no service at Old Market Hall nor at Monumental church or chapel to-night.

Miss Estelle Courtney returned home last week after an extended visit to her sister in Georgia.

Mr. W. L. Reid, passenger agent of the Fall-River Line at New York, was in the city Friday.

Miss Minnie Gordon, of Powhatan county, is the guest of Miss Mary Thaw, north Eighth street.

Miss Alice Reid, of Staunton, who has been visiting Miss Hattie Gray, left for New Kent Friday.

Mr. W. W. Scott, formerly of Richmond, now residing in Ohio, is doing well in his new home.

Mr. George Kennon left last week for Denver, Col. He contemplates making that place his future home.

The Mu Sigma Rho literary society of Richmond College will have their public debate on Friday night, April 10th.

The old pine-tree in the Richmond College campus, said to be the only one within the corporate limits, is gradually dying.

Mrs. J. M. Page, of Charlottesville, was in the city last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. James V. Ramos, 601 east Main street.

Miss Lillie Monteiro, of Williamsburg, will be in the city this week, the guest of Miss Evelyn Watkins, No. 310 west Grace street.

Miss Mattie A. Wayne, of Kentucky, one of Covington's loveliest women, is at Old Point, leaving for Europe about the 1st of May.

Rev. Preston Nash, assistant rector of St. James church, will organize a Sunday school at the almshouse this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Patterson, of Covington, Ky., who were in the city visiting friends, are now at Old Point.

Mrs. W. H. Hendley, who has been to Baltimore attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. N. B. Cook, has returned.

Miss Mamie H. Phillips, of Fredericksburg, passed through this city from a long visit both to Norfolk and Petersburg.

The Lee models on exhibition in the Senate chamber continue to attract large crowds to the Capitol daily from 12 to 6 o'clock.

Miss Lettie Stansbury, of Fredericksburg, who has been spending the winter with Mrs. A. Osterloh, will return home this week.

The Richmond Light Infantry Blues are having new uniforms made and expect to get them by the 10th of May, their anniversary.

Miss Helen Spikwith, who has been spending the winter in this city, returned to her home in Mecklenburg county, last week.

Mr. W. E. Tooke, formerly a teacher of shorthand in this city, is now editor and proprietor of the Democratic-Republican, of Hamilton, N. Y.

At a meeting of the Committee on the Fire Department Wednesday they had under consideration the purchase of a new engine for the department.

Mr. C. H. Knox, of Michigan, is in the city, and speaks of purchasing a farm on lower James river, and will make Virginia his future home.

Miss J. D. B. Thompson, who with her cousin from Boston, Miss Ayres, has been on a visit to friends in Petersburg, returned to the city Friday.

Mrs. Charles T. Barry and daughter, of Norfolk, are visiting our city—the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. C. W. Burr, west Marshall street.

Mr. Moses, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, is making a fine record for sensible management and clear comprehension of the duties of his position.

The sensation of the week in legal circles throughout the State was the announcement of the Supreme Court of Appeals with reference to the Ryan case.

The subject of Bishop Keane's sermon at the Cathedral to-night will be "The Prodigal Son." The Bishop's Lenten discourses are largely attended.

is estimated that the cost will be about $50,000.

Dr. J. D. Monroe, Superintendent of the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. Carter Berkeley, of Staunton, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Raleigh, N. C.

Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, will be in the city this week, and will speak on local option next Sunday.

Miss Sallie Hammer, principal of the Female Institute, who has been in New York city, has returned home.

Mrs. General Logan left yesterday for New York city, where she will remain some time visiting friends.

A collection has been taken up in the custom-house and post-office for the flood sufferers and $14.60 realized.

Mr. Ebert G. Handy, of St. Paul, Minn., is now on a visit to Richmond, and is the guest of Mr. Tazewell Elliott.

Mrs. Townes, of Petersburg, the mother of Dr. R. L. Townes, was in the city last week visiting Mrs. Whitlock.

Colonel John Bell Bigger, Clerk of the House of Delegates, arrived in the city yesterday. He will return home Tuesday.

Mr. Zirkle, one of Colonel Bell Bigger's popular clerks, left last week for Austin, Texas, and will make it his future home.

Mr. George J. Hooper has been elected representative to the Great Council Improved Order of Red Men by Annawan Tribe.

Mr. W. A. McDonough, who was in Baltimore visiting friends, has returned to this city. He had a most delightful time whilst away.

Mr. W. Gans, who has recently been so ill in New York, is now convalescent, and will in course of a few weeks be enabled to devote his entire time to his business.

Colonel J. L. Carrington has sold to Mr. J. M. Parsons, of New Brunswick, N. J., his handsome Condolus Billy, which took the first premium at the State Fair.

Roger B. Atkinson, Esq., and E. T. D. Myers, Jr., Esq., left the city yesterday to spend a few days with the Misses Carter, of Pamunkey, King William county.

Miss Wayne, of Covington, Ky., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. France, at the Valentine, left for Old Point last Friday. She is expected to return to this city next Wednesday.

The Bostonians will play their first games of baseball in Richmond with the Rochester, of New York, on April 10th and 20th. On the 21st, 22d, and 23d they will play picked ones.

At the meeting of the literary societies of Richmond College last Friday night Mr. George H. Edwards, of South Carolina, was elected first president of the Mu Sigma Rho, and Mr. J. D. Martin, of Henry county, of the Phi Kappa Phi.

Architects report the building prospects of the city as fair. Many new buildings are in process of erection, and orders for plans of contemplated structures are coming in. The last End of the city is sharing in this welcome revival of the builders as well as the popular West End.

Dr. Smith, who graduated at the last commencement of the Virginia Military College, a gentleman of sixty years, was a practitioner for twenty years previously in one of